

6516208849.txt

Xm has changed the way i listen to radio. I will never go back to regular radio again except for the local sports teams. Why is the gov't even getting involved with this issue. It is just another attempt by a powerfull lobby to influence the voting and conscious of the elected govt officials. What is the core issue? That local weather and traffic will force people to listen to radio that they dont want to listen to in the first place.